

IS THE MAN GUILTY

William Colby, the Marine City Murderer

SAID TO HAVE AN ACCOMPLICE

Dark Suspicion Aroused That Colby Is the Victim of Another's Act.

MARINE CITY, Mich., April 20.—In the Cook murder case certain circumstances have been brought to light which arouse the suspicion in the minds of the public and the local authorities that Colby was not alone in committing the murder, if indeed he had anything to do with the crime at all. These suspicions have been agitated since the date of the murder, and resulted in Alex Young, justice of the peace and coroner, going to Port Huron and obtaining Judge Mitchell's consent to take up Cook's body, which was buried yesterday, and hold a thorough autopsy and sift the case to the bottom.

The murdered man's remains were returned last night and brought to Marine City. An autopsy will be held today. A writ of habeas corpus will probably be obtained for Colby and he will be brought back to this city. Coroner Young commenced an inquest Saturday night, but discontinued it at the prosecuting attorney's request, against Young's own inclinations. His determination to set things right and see justice done is expected to result in startling developments as the autopsy proceeds.

THE ROYAL ARCANUM OFFICERS.

Annual Meeting of the State Body at Lansing.

LANSING, Mich., April 20.—The grand council of the Royal Arcanum of Michigan is holding its fifteenth annual session in the senate chamber here. Grand Regent, John D. Barry, recommended an appropriation of $2500 a year for the employment of deputy regents to assist in the work of organization. Secretary S. A. Griggs of Detroit reported that one new council had been formed during the year, making seventy-one in all, and that there had been an increase of 306 in the membership in the state, the total now being 6753. The treasurer reported the receipts at $6332, the expenditures at $6045, and the balance on hand at $5329. The Rev. Washington Gardner of Albion, and Frank Mills of Port Huron, spoke at the opera house last night. About 100 representatives are here. The election of the following officers for the ensuing year here have been elected: Grand Regent, J. W. Cochran, Midland; grand vice regent, H. B. Hodges, Lansing; grand secretary, John D. Barry, Lansing; grand treasurer, S. A. Griggs, Detroit; grand chaplain, W. S. Campbell, Detroit; grand judge, L. H. Clues, Saginaw; grand scribe, J. S. Briggs, Hudson; grand warden, H. H. Appling, West Bay City; grand sentinel, E. F. Woodcock, Niles; trustee for three years, H. B. Baxter, Grand Rapids; one year, C. A. Fatin, Almont. Representatives to the grand council: Thomas A. Parrish, Grand Haven; Frank A. Mills, Port Huron. The next annual council will be held at Muskegon.

HELD UP BY TROOPS.
George Yott Robbed in Detroit at the Point of a Gun.

DETROIT, April 20.—Last midnight George Yott of Chatham, Ont., reported at police headquarters that shortly before he was introduced to two men in Ives' saloon, 123 Michigan avenue. The strangers proposed a walk, and when they had proceeded a couple of blocks along Michigan avenue one of the men suddenly pointed a revolver at Yott and ordered him to throw up his hands. While he kept the weapon pointed at Yott the other went through his pockets, taking $30 in money, a lady's gold watch and a silver watch.

Single-Headed, Double-Bodied Pig.

LAKEVIEW, April 20.—A man of Lakeview by the name of Samuel Beal exhibited quite a curiosity to the astonished gaze of the good citizens of the above named town. A motherly old sow did her best to increase Farmer Beal's worldly possessions by bringing to him one morning a litter of nine little squealers, but among them was one or two, it could not be determined, which was the cause of the astonishment of the citizens of Lakeview. It was a double-bodied pig, joined at the base of the head, two distinct spines, two bodies, eight legs, two ornamental tails, but only one head. Farmer Beal thinks much of the wonder and considers it a snap, though it lived but two hours, sucking its nourishment two or three times before it died. So it will now go to Ann Arbor, not to be sold, for Mr. Beal has been offered big money for it, who refuses all offers, and says he will exhibit it at the great World's Fair.

Supreme Court Decisions.

LANSING, April 20.—Cases heard: The People vs. The Port Wayne & Elmwood Railroad company, Margaret M. Sherman vs. Wm. Peterson, highway commissioner; Wm. H. Lyon vs. Judith Swenney; Ella L. Cooley vs. Wm. H. Harris et al.; Amos A. Kinney et al. vs. Wm. Service; John E. Jones et al. vs. Rogers Deming; Portsmouth Savings Bank vs. Village of Ashley; Martin Wolf vs. Thomas Holton; Pizarro Mansfield vs. Charles J. Mansfield. Thursday's call: 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76.

That Badly Peppared Burglar.

LAKEVIEW, Mich., April 20.—Nothing has been heard from the burglar who secured $175 and a painful gun shot wound at the residence of Farmer Martin Frederickson near this place early last Wednesday morning. One theory entertained is that the robber has crawled into the woods and died, and another that he was enabled through the aid of accomplices to escape from the country. A reward of $100 is offered for his capture.

General State News.

Wm. Burgess, a foreigner living at Little Creek, desired to take out naturalization papers, and for that purpose went to the deputy county clerk, who refused to give them, and referred Burgess to the proper officials at Marshall. The foreigner thereupon got mad, swore he would take out his papers at Battle Creek, and appealed to be supreme court. Yesterday morning Michigan's highest judiciary ruled that he was not willing to go a distance of twelve miles to become a citizen of the United States he might remain an alien.

Michigan has teamed with horrible crimes the past week. Up at Marine City a farm hand killed a fellow laborer with a neck knife in another case a young daughter confessed that her father is the father of her babe and that he had married her; at Fenwick, in Montcalm county, on Saturday last a mother drowns her daughter and herself in a spring on the husband's farm; in Detroit on Sunday two or three stabbing affairs occurred, and, together with several lesser crimes, make the week the most awful in the history of the state.

The Cadillac boy is full of tricks and never lets a good opportunity pass without a subtle test. It became known that the sale of Easter hats was extra large, he had a number of signs printed with the inscription: "Where did you get that hat?" in bold letters, and late Saturday night posted them all around the fronts of the leading churches. The deacons, of course, are wild and are trying to discover the perpetrators of the joke.

The bridge over Huron river near New Boston on the main line of the Flint & Pere Marquette railroad was set on fire by a passing locomotive at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning and completely burned. Material for rebuilding was on the ground at 10 o'clock and the bridge was ready for use again at midnight last night. The structure was 150 feet in length.

Arguments are being made in Hancock & Stark's office, Saginaw, before Judge Steere of Sault Ste. Marie, in the chancery case of Wylie Bros. vs. Henry Gamble. The suit has been pending since the fall of 1920. It involves the possession of pine lands in Alger county valued at $80,000.

Judge Peck, at Jackson, has sentenced Wm. Cahoon to seventy-five days in jail and to pay $100 fine for assault and battery. The case has been a long one, this being the third trial, and it will be appealed again.

Joseph R. Lawton of Blind River, Ont., was in Bay City. While there a suit for $25,000 was commenced against him by Edna Bready for damages, and Joseph will be obliged to stay in America for some time.

The democrats of Saginaw have raised $2000 to push the case of ex-Police Judge John D. Barry. It will be taken to the supreme court. It will be remembered that Barry was deposed on a technicality.

C. A. Brewster of Pontiac is making an effort to have his wife released from the asylum for the insane, on the ground that she was sent there by relatives while he was in Dakota superintending a farm.

It is gratifying to Michigan people to know that they have the best "best" mind you-military academy, of a private nature, in the United States, according to a decision from the war department.

St. John's Catholic church, Jackson, took fire Sunday just before Easter services began. The loss to the church was small, but some paintings were ruined and the frescoing badly damaged.

Patrick Heester, a poor vagrant, was found dead in a cell of the Marshall jail. He was ill, and applied for a place to lay his head and die. The authorities of the town gave him the jail.

Local artists gave the Kalamazoo Humane society a benefit at the academy Tuesday night. The good cause of humanitarians will go forward now backed by a goodly sum of money.

Prince Michael's wife in Detroit was offered $1000 to release her husband from all marital responsibility, but she refused, and will discharge her lawyer for agreeing to the terms.

The Seventh-day Adventists in certain portions of the state are sending petitions to their respective representatives in congress to keep open the World's Fair on Sunday.

Matthew Smith and Robert Graw-bader of Rockford had a lively scrap over the affections of a girl. During the fight Graw-bader bit the little finger off Smith's hand.

Four boys have been either burned to death or frightfully injured in the past four weeks in Ionia county, by having their clothes catch fire while playing around bonfires.

George Poland of Saginaw, was probably fatally injured by his 12-year-old sister-in-law pointing an old rusty revolver at him and pulling the trigger. It was loaded.

Abram Detmars of Hudson township, has fallen heir to $100,000, left by his brother, John V. Detmars of Geneva, N. Y.

Jacob H. Clark of Ann Arbor, member of the G. A. R., cut his hand a short time ago, blood poisoning set in, and death resulted Tuesday.

Miss Mary Johnson, the Coldwater girl who mysteriously disappeared, has returned but refused to state where she has been or what took her away.

Walker Cole, a convict from Branch county in the state prison, fell dead of heart disease while working on the streets of Jackson.

Muskegon claims to have shipped twelve and one-half million feet of lumber from that port in the past two weeks.

Menominee sport lovers have decided to have a ball club, and will seek entrance into the Wisconsin state league.

A beet sugar manufacturing company is being organized at Saginaw with a capital of $500,000.

The Benton Harbor National Union lodge is preparing to build a $20,000 club house.

Lapeer will give a horse meeting June 14 to 17, and $10,000 is already subscribed.

A new saw mill was burned at Lewiston, Twin Lakes, before a wheel was turned.

MRS. GRAHAM'S Cucumber AND Elder Flower Cream

Is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth clear, velvet skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sunburn and freckles, and blackheads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissue and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it. It gives a more youthful appearance to any lady and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1. at all druggists and hair dressers, or at Mrs. Graham's establishment, 105 Post street, San Francisco, where she treats ladies for all ailments of the face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her little book, "How to be Beautiful."

AGENTS: BATTLE mailed free to anybody on receipt of 10 cents in stamps to pay for postage and packing. Lady Agents wanted.

FOREST CITY MEDICAL DISPENSARY

60-62-64-66 Euclid Avenue, CLEVELAND, O.

THE DOCTORS, A., F. &amp; S., PHYSICIANS IN CHARGE.

A PERMANENT INSTITUTION OF MANY YEARS STANDING.

CHRONIC, NERVOUS, SKIN AND BLOOD DISEASES.

Successfully Treated upon the Latest Scientific Principles.

Chronic Diseases Nervous Debility Organical Weakness

The most wonderful success has been attained in the treatment of the cases to which we devote our special attention, and through years of patient labor and research, we have discovered the most infallible methods of curing general weakness, involuntary discharges, impotency, nervousness, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, diseases of throat, nose and skin, affections of the liver, stomach and bowels—those terrible disorders arising from solitary habits of youth—and secret practices, making life a miserable existence and marriage impossible.

These suffering from Nervous Debility, the symptoms of which are a dull distressed mind, which unites them for performing business and social duties, make happy marriages impossible, distress the action of the heart, causing flushes of heat, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, cowardice, fear, dreams, short breathings, melancholy, tire easily of company and have a preference to be alone; feeling as tired in the morning as when retiring; lost manhood; white bone deposits in the spine, nervousness, trembling, confusion of thoughts, watery and weak eyes, dyspepsia, constipation, paleness, pain and weakness of the limbs, etc. should consult us.

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affliction which renders life a burden and marriage impossible—the penalty paid by victims of improper indulgence. The most chaste must acknowledge that the passions are the great magnet by which the whole system is attracted. Destroy them and what have we? Man is no longer interested in the opposite sex; the interchange of that blissful repose which attracts and interests the whole world, exists no longer; man ceases to be what God made him; the world is no longer interesting to him, and remorse and disappointment are his constant companions. We have devoted years to the study of the best methods of treating the various forms in which this disease manifests itself, we treat every case on its own merits; and thousands to-day join in thanking us for the new lease of life and happiness our skill has opened up to them.
